Hi.
I am being advised that OPS would have decided to wait for an Algonquin Elder from KZA to visit the site at 6pm tonight before proceeding with any further actions.
Following this discussion between the Algonquin Elder and the organisers, OPS will decide what they do next, potentially removing people tonight.
We are available /ready to further secure the site by removing the material located there (including the shack) , however we get the sense that may not happen today (most likely tomorrow) as we don't have OPS greenlight to do so yet.
Finally, we have various barriers to further limit vehicular access to the area, but again we are waiting for OPS to let us know we can proceed.
I will update again later tonight.

Lars.
OPS have now ended talks. We are about to get an update on next steps. We have indicated that we have 1.5 hrs before dark, at which it is difficult for our contractor to operate safely. Waiting to hear what OPS decides to do.

Lars.
OPS officers have now left the command post, they are now speaking with the organizers to inform them that they need to dismantle. Our contractor is on standby with a lift and trailer. I am told 12 OPS officers are there.
Will update when I hear more.

Hi Véronique,

I just saw this tweet from Jon Willing:

https://twitter.com/JonathanWilling/status/1489641127313653767?s=20&t=uPVQMws4AqHikVfav3fgSg

Removal of this shack was supposed to start at 11 a.m. Could you please update us on this?

Thanks,

Lars
